Dear Parent,

Hérons Visit to Peele Community College, Long Sutton

As you may be aware we have taken the decision today to cancel Owls class visit to Cambridge tomorrow. Following a risk assessment, we have made this decision due to poor weather conditions, continuing poor weather forecasts, the distance being travelled and the timings of the visit.

Your child's visit, planned for tomorrow, to Peele Community College, Long Sutton is presently going ahead. We will re-assess the situation in the morning and if we feel it is necessary to cancel this visit then the decision will be made then. Before making our decision, we will consult with the bus company who will have made the same journey for the school run tomorrow morning. If it is decided to cancel the visit for safety reasons, then it will be rearranged for the near future and you will be notified of the new arrangements as soon as possible.

Yours sincerely

Miss Claire Willows
