Update on Owls Trip to the Fitzwilliam Museum

Dear Parents,

Due to the unfortunate weather that resulted in the postponement of our trip to the Fitzwilliam Museum, I am pleased to say that I have been in contact with them and they are arranging a new date for us to visit.

Unfortunately, the Education Department are fully booked for the rest of this term but they do have some dates left for after the Easter break. I am currently organising the new date that suits both the museum and the bus company and you will be updated as soon as the new date is confirmed.

This will be a wonderful way to consolidate our knowledge of the Ancient Egyptians and see the artefacts that we have been learning about up close.

Thank you for your ongoing patience whilst the new arrangements for this trip have been put in place.

Yours sincerely,

Miss R. Griffin
