Dear Parents,

World Book Day - Friday 4th March
Mums invited into School

As you are aware from prior notices in the Weekly Update, Friday 4th March is World Book Day. Sutton St James School will be celebrating this event with a number of activities in school.

On Friday 4th March everybody in school is invited to come in dressed as a character from a book of their choice. There is no charge for doing this. The children will all be given an opportunity in their class to explain who they are dressed as, which book they are from and the reasons why they chose that character during the afternoon.

During the morning mums are will be welcome to come into school to work with their children to complete activities. Mums are also encouraged to come in dressed as a book character of their choice. During the morning the children will be working in their house groups which will mean that mums will get to spend the whole morning with all of their children. Mums will be able to join their children in class following the Celebration Assembly until 12noon. Tea and coffee will be provided at playtime in the school hall.

The children will all receive a £1.00 book token which can be exchanged as part payment for books in various local shops or used with the Scholastic Book club leaflets which will be sent out at the end of World Book Day. This token is valid until 27th March 2016.

We thank you in anticipation of your support of this event by helping your child with a costume for the day.

Yours sincerely

Miss Claire Willows
